

Due to the success of our acclaimed seminar 'Buying better companies at better prices' the event is now available to purchase on DVD.

The DVD films an actual event held at The Savoy Hotel, London.

Whilst providing still shots of every slide, the DVD also films the speaker and is professionally chaptered so you can skip from section to section. Approximate run time is 143 mins.

Should you wish to purchase this DVD, you can do so by completing and returning the form below along with a cheque for the relevant payment. The DVD will be dispatched to you with our current fee structure, full delegate pack and access details to the delegates only section of the website which contains example documents and other articles presented at the seminar.
